

TEASA praise and prayer letter

October 2023

Give thanks

- Pamela Ncamisile Ngubane, who recently joined TEASA to lead our Media and Communications.
- Alliances with likeminded formations in society through whom TEASA is able to leverage more influence on our national life and Democracy.
- The TEASA Policy inputs in various legislations affecting the witness of Churches.
- The work of different Commissions and task teams that serve TEASA members in different Missions, Evangelism and Church planting, Marketplace leadership, Health Women and Reconciliation. Whistle blowers and Gender Based Violence.
- A successful AEA conference in Botswana held in September. Pray that the conference output - Botswana declaration - will assist national alliances working in different countries on the continent.
