

TEASA -Your partner in evangelical witness

Connecting churches, mission agencies and church leaders, so that evangelical faith is seen, heard and believed – locally, regionally, nationally and internationally.

Millions stand together in mission

TEASA provides a home to four million Christians from a diverse range of evangelical, Pentecostal and charismatic backgrounds. They bring a variety of gifts for the building of the body of Christ.

Become of a part of thousands of churches, organisations and individuals united in evangelical essentials and witness by joining the Evangelical Alliance here. ( or use these link <https://teasa.org/ueber-mich/membership/>)

How we work.

TEASA serves churches by building networks that resource, train and strengthen the capacity of the local church through diverse area specific commissions. These are:

- Evangelism and Church planting Commission
- Missions Commission
- Women Commission
- Children's Commission
- Youth Commission
- Health Commission
- Market Place Commission
- Disciple making decade
- Advocacy

Relationships, alliances and strategic partners.

- International relationships.

- TEASA is a member of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa ( <https://aeafrika.org/>) (AEA), which brings together evangelical member alliances from different countries on the continent.
- TEASA is also affiliated to the World Evangelical Alliance ( <https://worlddea.org/en/who-we-are/>) which brings together alliances from around the world.

- Ecumenical partners. The Body of Christ comes in different shades. Like the colours of a rainbow of grace, they bring different gifts and graces that together bring out the Light of the gospel. TEASA enjoys good relations with the South African Council of churches and share in mutually enriching fellowship, mission and advocacy.

What leaders say

“I am convinced that TEASA’s visionary leadership has helped classical Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity to respond to the urgent questions of the day.” Dr Elijah Maswanganyi, Assemblies of God.

“Since its inception TEASA has been a pillar and foundation of the Truth in our beautiful new south Africa. TEASA’s witness is vital in our forward movement.”
Rev Richard Verreyne. Moderator Christian Reformed Church.

“As the AFM of South Africa, we are members of TEASA because we believe evangelicals in this country should speak prophetically with a united voice. We want to encourage other evangelicals to join TEASA so that we could achieve this.” Dr J Lapoorta, Vice President, AFM of South Africa.
